Report :-

Istoria: The History Department of Maitreyi College organised the screening of the movie “Khelein Hum Jee Jaan sey” on 6th August, 2021. It was screened as a part of “AZADI KA AMRIT MAHOTSAV” - celebration of 75 years of India’s Independence. The Movie was based on 1930’s Chittagong Armoury Raid by Surjo Sen, popularly known as Master Da. Surjo Sen along with other freedom fighters raided the telegraph office and the armoury of police and auxiliary forces on 18th April, 1930. The movie was directed by Aushotosh Gowariker with Abhishek Bachchan, Deepika Padukone and Sikander Kher in the role of Surjo Sen, Kalpana Dutta and Nirmal Sen respectively. The film was based on Manini Chatterjee’s non-fiction novel “Do and Die: The Chittagong Uprising 1930-34”. The session was conducted on Zoom platform from 9:30 AM to 2 PM. The screening started with an introduction by Aastha Kathuria and Palkin Lamba and was followed by two competitions - “Comment to Win” and “Quiz Competition” which were successfully conducted by Nandita and Neha. A lively discussion was moderated by Ms. Aali Kumar and the students also participated enthusiastically. The event was attended by 81 participants out of which 8 were departmental professors and the rest were students of the department. Laijou Brahma emerged as the winner of the rapid fire round and Anushka Singh won the ‘comment to win’ competition. The winners were announced by Dr. Ranjana Bhattacharya, Dr. Priyanka Nirupam and Dr. Lalsanglen Haokip. The event was concluded with a vote of thanks by our Teacher Incharge Dr. Ritu C Kumar and was coordinated under the guidance of our Association Incharge Dr. Mukta Raut Dey. The technical side was handled by Dr. Rohan. The students also gave their feedback through the Feedback form shared with them. As a whole, it was an interactive and thought-provoking session.

Significance:-

The movie screening sensitized the students about the lesser known yet very integral aspect of our freedom struggle, the Chittagong Armoury Raid. A thought provoking discussion after the movie familiarized the students about a pivotal role played by women during the freedom struggle.

Report-

The History Department of Maitreyi College organised the Poster making competition on the topic “AZADI KE RANG:Tri- colour through the ages”, as part of Azadi Ka Amrut Mahotsav - celebrating 75 years of India’s Independence. The event was conducted through the platform of Google-Meet, on 27th August, 2021.

The Event started with a brief introduction by our anchors Pracheta and Bidipta and it was followed by a documentary, directed and produced by the students of the History Department and a small cultural programme. The next part of the event was the poster-making competition in which the 22 contestants presented their posters. Students made delightful posters and gave 2 to 3 minutes speeches in which they explained their concept and perspective behind the posters. We came across many disparate sorts of thoughts by the students through their exquisite posters. The event was judged by Ms Aali kumar, Assistant professor of history department, Maitreyi College, and Dr. Pooja Gopal, Assistant professor of political science department, Maitreyi college. The winners were announced by Dr Pooja Gopal. The winning poster was designed by Chand Tara from Political Science Hons. 3rd Year and the two runner-ups were Nandini Gaur from History Hons. 2nd Year and Nidhi Singh, From B.sc Physical science . The event was attended by 101 attendees and they all participated enthusiastically and also gave their feedback through the feedback form.

The event was concluded with a vote of thanks by our Teacher Incharge Dr. Ritu Chahal Kumar and was coordinated under the guidance of our Association Incharge Dr. Mukta Raut Dey. The technical work was handled by Dr. Rohan. The event was conducted through the zoom platform, on 13th September, 2021 at 10:00 am.

The event started with an introduction by the anchors Mansi Kumar and Riya Mirza, followed by an engrossing talk by Dr Kumkum Srivastava. She took us through the uncontested, literary history of Urdu in India and how it became a movement through which literature kept pace, cultivated self-reliance and anti British propaganda in the second half of the 20th century. Talking about poets from Wajid Ali Shah to Faiz Ahmed Faiz, whose contribution to Urdu Poetry will always be remembered in golden words, all in all the talk was informative and compelling.

The second part of the event was a MUSHAIRA Competition moderated by Ms. Aali Kumar. The students of the history department took part in it and performed exquisitely with their soulful voices. The competition was judged by Dr Kumkum Srivastava and Dr Rohan. Out of 17 competitors Lajou Brahma, Ishita Mishra and Mahima Rao emerged as the winners. The event was attended by 101 participants along with the professors of the History department.

Lastly, a vote of thanks was conveyed by our Teacher-in-charge Dr. Ritu Chahal Kumar.
